

Does the settlement include compensation for protection plans?

While refunds for protection plans are not provided for in the settlement, the damages payment you receive, in part, is intended to compensate you for any add-on options purchased with your vehicle. The cancellation terms and conditions of certain protection plans could allow for a refund outside of the settlement. There are many plans and many providers. Claimants should consult their plan for details.